

USE ONE FORM FOR EACH ADULT IN THE CASE

APA ORIENTATION CHECKLIST

During the APA period, the Recipient shall provide or ensure that program beneficiaries assigned to it are provided orientation, with appropriate language interpretation if needed and to the extent possible. To the extent practical, written orientation materials in an appropriate language covering the topics listed below shall be made available to program beneficiaries. Complete orientation on all topics shall be completed before the end of the APA period. Orientation materials are available from the Cultural Orientation Resource Exchange at www.COResourceExchange.org.

Review CORE's APA CO Objectives and Indicators list to ensure all CO objectives are covered.

Adult Name	Case Number	Date of Arrival at Final Destination

Orientation Topic	Date	Person Providing Orientation	Person Providing Interpretation and in what language or N/A
i. Role of the Local Resettlement Agency
ii. Parole Status
iii. English
iv. US Laws & Law Enforcement (including counseling regarding the practice of polygamy.
v. Your New Community
vi. Employment
vii. Budgeting & Personal Finance viii. Housing
ix. Hygiene
x. Safety
xi. Cultural Adjustment
xii. Education
xii. Public Assistance
xiii. Health
xv. Transportation			